

Most people see a chair.

You see the buildings bringing it to life.

Business Navigator

You see things a little differently. So do we. We believe that what you value is more important than what your CV says. We offer positions that will challenge your skills and let you grow. Come see things a little differently with us.

About you

- Bachelor degree above, with economics and statistics major is preferred.
- At least 5-6 years' related experience.
- A passion for business and share with IKEA value.
- Ability to organize, structure and prioritise numerous tasks as necessary
- An ability to see the big picture and skilled in communicating in a clear and simple way.
- Able to Leading business through people and drive the business towards efficiency
- Be a dynamic, action oriented team player that is self-motivated and confident in making independent decisions

About the job

- Department: Business Navigator
- Direct Report to: Business Navigation & Operation Manager
- Working Location: Fengxian, Shanghai.
- Overall Mission: Responsible to daily business and people of department

About the assignment

- Utilize relevant analytical tools to follow up the goal achievement and development of the business.
- Interpret ITTC's business results and progress in relation to goals and agreed plans.
- Provide ITTC management Team with key figures, performance indicators and analysis.
- Identify business improvement potentials as well as detect business risks and propose needed actions to ITTC Management Team.
- Secure and follow up ITTC budget and costs development and propose needed actions.
- Assume responsibility for other tasks, projects and reference groups as assigned.
- Secure the functional reporting according to common rules and deadlines.
- Secure the business area's costs are well controlled and reduced where necessary.
- Participating the negotiation of complex contracts with superior results, including price, delivery quality, lead-times and terms.

IKEA Test Lab& Training Centre is the first IKEA owned Test Lab outside of Sweden. We provide top competence, a test capacity necessary and technical training to achieve our high goals for quality, healthy and safe products to our customers.

Learn more and apply with us at www.ittc-lab.com

Please send your resume to ittc.hr.cn@ikea.com no later than Dec. 26, 2016

